“From now on you will be catching people.”

LUKE 5:10, NRSV

Last Sunday, February 2nd

Attendance in Sunday School: 17

Attendance in Church: 40

Virtual Attendance: 10

Scripture: Luke 4:21-30 Jesus said “The prophet is not welcome in his hometown”.

Sermon: “Fill My Wounds with Healing” The people of Nazareth liked Jesus’ teachings at first, but Jesus told them that God’s grace is for everyone, not just them. God wants to grant abundance, grace and love to all people, and to bring His kingdom on earth. Our job is to make that kingdom here, and then Jesus will come to rule!

Submit Your Recipes

We have some of the best cooks in Kaufman County, so let’s show off our talents! Destiny Arredondo is collecting recipes from the congregation with the goal of publishing a cookbook for our 180th anniversary celebration. Click here to input your recipe, and be sure to include instructions, such as temperature, time to cook, and other important information. It’s pretty easy, but if you are not computer savvy, you can write out the recipe and give it to Destiny or to another church member who can help you.

?? ? Bible Quiz ? ?

In Luke’s account of Jesus calling the first disciples from their work as fishermen to follow him and “fish for people” (NIV), which disciple is not named?

- A. James
- B. John
- C. Simon
- D. Andrew

Answer: D (See Luke 5:1-11.)

The Youth helped out in a big way as they worked in the pavilion to clean up the remains of the Rummage Sale! Thanks guys!

Check it out - we now have a pickleball court in the Pavilion! If you are interested in learning how to play this game that is sweeping the nation, please let Dessie or Becca know. If there is enough interest, they will be conducting lessons on the rules, groundstrokes, volleys and serves. Stay tuned for more information!

These ladies are working hard to prepare for the 180th anniversary of the establishment of College Mound UMC. It's going to be a great celebration, with guest speakers, lots of food and plenty of good memories of our beloved church!
